

Save the date
WORLD AIDS DAY 2015

“HIV treatment and management: the past, present and future”

Date: December 1st 2015

Time: 8.30-12.00

Venue: Nobel Forum, Karolinska Institute
Nobels väg 1, 17165 Solna

The objectives of the seminar – to discuss:

- The development of HIV treatment in the past , present and future perspectives
- HIV treatment and the Quality of Life of People living with HIV: global challenges and need for improvement.
- The Whys and Wherefores of HIV treatment and management
- How can HIV treatment be improved?

Lecturers:

1. Leo Flamholc, Senior Consultant, Malmö Universitetsjukhus, Malmö
2. Anna Mia Ekström, Professor, Department of Infectious Diseases, Karolinska University Hospital & Department of Public Health (Global Health/IHCAR), Karolinska Institutet
3. Maria H Lindberg, PhD Student, Department of Learning, Informatics, Management and Ethics, Karolinska Institutet
4. John Viner, Programme Coordinator, Swedish Workplace HIV/AIDS Programme

Break: 10.00 – 10.30 (coffee & sandwiches provided).

The event is organised by in collaboration with

Official sponsors of the event:

